

Heading Home, Day 7

Our trek back home was now a much smaller group, with some electing to stay behind to catch up with family and friends while others left early for the long drive home. For the rest of us our first stop was the Licorice and Chocolate Factory at Junee for brekkie..... great coffee and lots of goodies!

Our final stop on the journey home was to the Rollonin café for lunch, where we could just sit back, relax and reminisce about the week that was..... and what an interesting and enjoyable week it was!.

Our thanks must go to Mark for his terrific organisation (and to David, his flawless navigator). A terrific event!
